

Magistration Judicial Education Certification Form

SB 6 (the Damon Allen Act) requires all justices of the peace to receive 8 hours of initial training on magistrate duties, and then 2 hours each subsequent state fiscal biennium. This form serves to certify that you have received the required 8 hours. Upon completion, please email this form to jessforeman@txstate.edu.

Virtual Option 1: Modules and Recorded Webinar

By selecting this option, you certify that you have completed all three webinars and modules listed below. These courses are certified for 8 hours of magistration education.

I certify that I have completed the following training:

- Webinar “Bail 2022: Implementation of the PSRS” – 2 hrs
- Module “Setting Bail and Bond Conditions Under the Damon Allen Act” – 3 hrs
- Module “TJCTC Magistration Module” – 3 hrs

Virtual Option 2: Piecemeal Menu

For this option, you select the classes you have completed and add up the hours that each class is worth. Once you have reached at least 8 hours, certify the form, and submit it. You are responsible for correctly tabulating your hours, TJCTC is unable to calculate hours for you or verify attendance in specific classes for you. If you have concerns about accurately completing option 2, TJCTC strongly encourages you to complete the materials listed under Option 1 above.

I certify that I have completed all of the training selected on the second page of this form, and that the hours certified total at least eight hours.
