The mission of the Title IV-E Child Welfare Partnership is to enhance the values, knowledge, and skills of the child welfare workforce in Texas through social work education, financial assistance, ongoing training, and career support.

Input: Financial Resources
- Title IV-E funding
- School match funding

Input: Human Resources
- CWP staff & Child welfare experts
- TXST and SSW faculty, staff, and students
- DFPS workers, supervisors, and managers
- University partners
- Community-Based Care partners

Input: Physical Resources
- TXST and SSW infrastructure, information management system, learning technology and software programs, and program office
- DFPS regional office

Input: Intellectual Resources
- CWP Training modules
- Supervision model

Output: Stakeholder: Title IV-E Child Welfare Partnership Program
- Increase the number of child welfare caseworkers who have social work degrees.
- Increase child welfare values, knowledge, and skills of CWP participants and alumni.
- Promote teaching, research, and service activities in the field of child welfare.

Output: Stakeholder: Texas State University and School of Social Work
- Contribute to advancing social work education, research, and practice.
- Improve CPS workers' values, knowledge, and skills (e.g., ethics).

Output: Stakeholder: DFPS/CPS Workers
- Improve CPS workers' values, knowledge, and skills (e.g., ethics).

Output: Stakeholder: Families/Community
- Increase families' knowledge and skills.
- Prevent child abuse and neglect.

The mission of the Title IV-E Child Welfare Partnership is to enhance the values, knowledge, and skills of the child welfare workforce in Texas through social work education, financial assistance, ongoing training, and career support.