

Thomas Korzeniewski

Senior Engineer at CFAN. CFAN is an equally owned subsidiary of Snecma and GE, CFAN is located in San Marcos, Texas. CFAN produces jet engine fan blades using a carbon-based composite material for the Boeing 787 Dreamliner and Boeing 777.

Academic Background

M.B.A Texas State University

B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from Bradley University

Thomas has more than 25 years' experience in the design and manufacturing of military and commercial nacelles and engines.

Abstracts

OCTOBER 9TH

Abstract: Thomas has spent over 25 years as a support engineer or mentor to other engineers. The majority of the time has been spent as manufacturing design liaison. Thomas has a firm foundation in team empowerment and LEAN. Thomas has learned valuable communication lessons during those 25 years:

Topics:

Success at work

Bad Advice I got

Team Behavior

Positive Team Philosophy

Small Team Leadership

Alpha Members

Confrontation

Competition

Ideas and Audience

Seminar October 9

History and new technologies in Aviation