

Research Newsletter – October

Research Activity

TEXAS  STATE
PHILOSOPHY

Matt

Dr. Matthew Bower

gave a talk at St. Mary's University in San Antonio entitled "Is Perception Inadequate?"

The paper explains why Husserl thinks perceptual content (especially regarding things' spatial/geometrical properties) outstrips what is immediately presented at any given moment in perceptual experience and gives some reasons for thinking otherwise.

Gil

Dr. Gilbert Fulmer

delivered a talk entitled “The Truth About Atheism”, to the Disproof Atheism Society at Boston University.

Lori

Dr. Lori Gallegos de Castillo

was the University of Portland's annual out-of-state invited lecturer.

Her talk there was entitled "Rethinking the Good Life: Social Inequality and the Promise of Philosophy."

Joe

Dr. Joseph Laycock

had a Skype session with Kalamazoo College to discuss his book, “The Seer of Bayside.”

Next month, he will be giving a paper entitled “The Secret History of the ‘Earling Exorcism’ at the American Academy of Religion national conference in Denver.

Greg

Dr. Greg Moses

presented a paper entitled “On the Dialectics of Nonviolence in 1957 Speeches by Martin and Mao” at the annual conference of Concerned Philosophers for Peace at the University of Colorado.

Jonathan

Dr. Jonathan Surovell

gave a presentation on “Rationale and Critical Thinking” at the Texas Digital Learning conference (#TXdigicon) at Austin Community College.

Hannah

Dr. Hannah Venable

presented a paper entitled “At the Opening of Madness: An Exploration of the Nonrational with Merleau-Ponty, Foucault, and Kierkegaard” at the annual meeting of the North Texas Philosophical Association.

Isaac

Dr. Isaac Wiegman

had his paper, “Payback Without Bookkeeping: The Origins of Revenge and Retaliation”, accepted for publication in Philosophical Psychology.