

Patrick Collins

Born 1946, father was a career Army officer

Attended 4 high schools in 3 countries in three different regions of the world

Learned to speak German while living in Vienna, Austria

BS in Chemistry from Ga Tech – 1968, 2.7 /4.0 GPA – nothing special

MS in Chemistry from Fla State – had to get an MS first because did not pass direct-to-PhD exams.

Phd in Physical Organic Chemistry – March of 1976 – over 10 years of college demonstrates that persistence sometimes overcomes lack of ability.

Ciba Geigy – 1976 to 1979 – McIntosh, AL plant made Ag chemicals and Plastics Additives

Product development chemist responsible for scale up of processes from the lab to the plant

GE Plastics – 1979 to 1990 – World leader in Engineering Plastics

Product Development Chemist - LEXAN production facility

Technical Marketing Specialist – LEXAN division

Marketing Specialist – LEXAN division

Manager Field Marketing Team

Manager Headquarters Marketing Team

Product Manager SUPEC resin

Cabot Corporation – 1990 to 1999 – World leader in Carbon Black

Business Segment Manager for Global Coatings

Hyperion Catalysis Inter. – 2000 to present (semi-retired) – World leader in multiwall carbon nanotubes

Marketing Director