Texas State New Employee REQUIRED NOTICES

According to legislation, all new employees are required to review the following policies and regulations. New employees received notice of this guide while completing onboarding documents.

Please review no later than 30 days after employee's hire date

Texas State University Employee Policies and Regulations

| Notice   | Description  | Reviewed |
|--|--|----------|
| Drug-Free Workplace UPPS No.04.04.45                 | Contains Texas State University's policy establishing a drug-free workplace.   |          |
| Drug-Free Schools and Communities                               | Information for students and employees regarding illicit drugs and alcohol abuse.  |          |
| Outside Employment and Activities  UPPS No. 04.04.06                   | Establishes procedures for individuals who have concurrent employment or participate in certain activities outside Texas State University.   |          |
| Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act                          | Campus Security & Fire Safety Report   |          |
| Workplace Accommodations UPPS No. 04.04.60                             | Describes procedures for requesting employment accommodations based on disability-related needs.   |          |
| Workers' compensation injuries, illnesses and claims Notice   Brochure | Establishes policies and procedures for the prevention of accidents, enhancement of safety programs, and processing of compensation claims under the State Office of Risk Management (SORM) Workers'  Compensation program's provisions. |          |

State of Texas Employee Policies and Regulations

| Notice                          | Description   | Reviewed |
|---------------------------------|---|----------|
| State Purchasing and General    | Texas Government Code, Chapter 403.01, 403.271-278, Accounting and  |          |
| Services Act                    | responsibility of state property.   |          |
| Protection for Reporting        | Texas Government Code, Chapter 554. Prohibits government entities from  |          |
| Violation of Law         | retaliation for public employees who report violations of the law in good faith.                                |          |
| Political Activities by Certain | Texas Government Code, Chapter 556. State employees' rights and prohibited acts regarding political activities. |          |
| Public Entities and      |   |          |
| Individuals              |   |          |
| Standards of Conduct            | Texas Government Code, Chapter 572.051, Standards of Conduct and Conflict of                                    |          |
|                                 | Interest Provisions for state employees.  |          |
| Multiple State Employments      | Texas Government Code, Chapter 667. Employment by more than one state   |          |
|                                 | agency or institution of higher education.  |          |
|                                 | See Outside Employment and Activities (UPPS No. 04.04.06) for information                                       |          |
|                                 | regarding outside employment and activities.  |          |
| HIV/AIDS and the Workplace      | Texas Health and Human Services resource on HIV, AIDS, and the workplace.                                       |          |

Information Regarding Sexual Misconduct in the Workplace

| Notice                  | Description   | Reviewed |
|-------------------------|---|----------|
| General Information     | Office of Equity & Access   |          |
| EEO and Title IX Notice | Texas State University System Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedures |          |
| Report an Issue         | Instructions and login to report an incident                          |          |

