

Southwestern Writers Collection

Special Collections at the Alkek Library
Texas State University-San Marcos

A Guide to the Kay Council Papers

1987 - 1989

Collection 043

Descriptive Summary

Creator: Council, Kay
Title: Kay Council Papers
Dates: 1987 - 1989
Identification: Collection 043
Extent: 4 folders (.20 linear feet)
Language: English
Repository: Southwestern Writers Collection, Special Collections, Alkek Library, Texas State University-San Marcos

Biographical Sketch

Journalist and folk arts researcher Kay Council earned her Masters in American Civilization/Folklore from the University of Texas at Austin in 1978. She currently resides in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Scope and Content Note

This collection is comprised of a typescript, an interview, photographs, and correspondence related to Council's unpublished project, "Curanderas: Texas-Mexican Visionaries: Folklore Interviews with Faith Healers and Intuitive Women". Dates range from 1987-1989.

Administrative Information

Access Restrictions

Open for Research. Note: No part of this material may be duplicated without the written permission of Ms. Council.

Preferred Citation

Kay Council Papers, Southwestern Writers Collection, Texas State University-San Marcos

Acquisition Information

Donated by Kay Council, 1989.

Processing Information

Processed by: Amanda Oates, 1999. Finding aid revised by Alan Schaefer, 2010

Notes to Researchers

No part of this material may be duplicated without the written permission of Ms. Council.

Detailed Description of the Collection

Inventory

Box	Folder
1	1	Typescript
1	2	Interview with Curandera Diana (videocassette)
1	3	Photographs
1	4	Correspondence